Experiences in engaging with the work of Decolonizing and Indigenizing at the University of Ottawa
Mona Tolley, Indigenous Curriculum Specialist, Faculty of Social Sciences

In this document, we have gathered information (resources, links, etc.) related to the theme that has been discussed.

Enjoy!

Resources on Indigenous ways of knowing

Mashkawazìwogamì Indigenous Resource Centre
The Indigenous Resource Centre (IRC) is a culturally safe space which offers a variety of programs and supports designed with First Nations, Inuit and Métis learners in mind. It is a place where you can work, meet your peers or learn from our staff and visiting elders and traditional knowledge keepers.
https://www2.uottawa.ca/about-us/indigenous/indigenous-resource-centre

Ten resources for teaching and learning about Indigenous History

Office of Indigenous Affairs
The Office of Indigenous Affairs is responsible for developing the Indigenous Action Plan, which outlines the University of Ottawa’s Indigenization goals in four key areas, and is enshrined in uOttawa’s Transformation 2030 Strategic Plan.
https://www2.uottawa.ca/about-us/indigenous/indigenous-affairs

National Center for Truth and Reconciliation
The NCTR is a place of learning and dialogue where the truths of the residential school experience will be honoured and kept safe for future generations.
https://nctr.ca/

April 19, 2022